

Our Marriage Commitment

Believing that God, in his grace and mercy has established marriage as a sacred lifelong commitment between a husband and wife, we choose to fully honor that commitment. We believe God has given us unconditional love and called us to love each other as he loves us. We understand our commitment to finish well is rooted in Jesus' unfailing commitment to never leave us nor forsake us.

So today we pledge to keep our marriage vows, to honor our commitment, and to unconditionally love each other for the rest of our days.

_____ and

November 13, 2010 at Mission Community Church

Our Marriage Commitment

Believing that God, in his grace and mercy has established marriage as a sacred lifelong commitment between a husband and wife, we choose to fully honor that commitment. We believe God has given us unconditional love and called us to love each other as he loves us. We understand our commitment to finish well is rooted in Jesus' unfailing commitment to never leave us nor forsake us.

So today we pledge to keep our marriage vows, to honor our commitment, and to unconditionally love each other for the rest of our days.

_____ and

November 13, 2010 at Mission Community Church

